PROFESSIONAL EXPERTISE

Jeremy Berman is a Managing Director with Savills Calgary office, where he specializes in tenant representation in downtown and suburban Calgary. Jeremy gets to know each client’s business goals and needs in detail, so that his advice and support is tailored to their individual needs.

Jeremy joined Savills after serving as a vice president at Colliers, where he worked for 13 years as a commercial tenant representative. He completed over 2 million square feet of office transactions in the Calgary market.

AWARDS, ACHIEVEMENTS AND ACTIVITIES

Jeremy has been a provincial-level ski coach for 12 years with ski teams in Alberta, Canada, and has carried on his coaching into soccer, where he has coached several teams over the past eight years. Jeremy holds a national B License for soccer and is a level 3 Canadian ski coach. He is involved in various charitable groups with a wide range of responsibilities, from building houses in Mexico for 1Mission, to starting up a not-for-profit soccer academy that works with underprivileged children in the community.
